KIKI the COLON Needs Your Help!

Kiki wants to find out what you know about colon cancer. Please help her by taking this short survey before going into the colon. At the other end, flip over this paper and answer the questions on the back side. Thanks for helping improve education for colon screening.

1. At what age should a person have their first screening for colorectal cancer?

35	45		50	65
2. Removing a polyp from your colon can prevent colon cancer.
YES			NO
3. Colorectal cancer always has symptoms that you can feel.
YES			NO
4. If you have a family member with colon cancer and/or Crohn's disease, you are at a higher risk of developing cancer.
YES			NO
5. Have you been screened for colorectal cancer?
YES			NO
6. How likely are you to get screened for colorectal cancer?
1 Very Unlikely	2 Somewhat	3 Neutral	4 Somewhat	5 Very Likely
Not Applicable (previously screened, too young, medically unable, etc.)
7. How comfortable are you talking to people about colorectal cancer screening?
1 Very Uncomfortable	2 Somewhat	3 Neutral	4 Somewhat	5 Very Comfortable
Now Let's Take a Tour Through Kiki the Colon!

Now that you have toured through Kiki the Color

1. At what age should a person have their first screening for colorectal cancer?
35	45	5	0	65
2. Removing a polyp from your colon can prevent colon cancer.
	YES		NO
3. Colorectal cancer always has symptoms that you can feel.
	YES		NO
4. If you have a family member with colon cancer and/or Crohn's disease, you are at a higher risk of developing cancer.
	YES		NO
5. After touring the giant colon, how likely are you to get screened for colorectal cancer?
1 Very Unlikely	2 Somewhat	3 Neutral	4 Somewhat	5 Very Likely
Not Applicable (previously screened, too young, medically unable, etc.)
6. After touring the giant colon, how comfortable are you talking to people about colorectal cancer screening?
1 Very Uncomforta	2 ble Somewhat	3 Neutral	4 Somewhat	5 Very Comfortable
7. Your age group	: Younger that	n 35 35-49	50-64	65+
8. Your race: AN / AI / W / AA / Other :
9. Your sex: Choose not to answer / Male / Female / Other:
If you are over 45 and have not been screened for colorectal cancer, talk to your health care provider and ask about screening
Remember: Colorectal Cancer Screening Saves Lives.

Remember: Colorectal Cancer Screening Saves Lives.

